

WHITEWALL

Welcomes you to London!

Dear Delegates,

Welcome to the UK! Our Consulate and UK-based teams are delighted that you have joined us for what we are sure will be an informative and productive mission. As you know, this is a key moment for advancing trade and economic growth in our two countries and around the world.

We hope that everyone involved will come away with a first-hand view of the breadth and impact of the trade and economic relationship between our countries, as well as a greater appreciation of how US and UK approaches and capabilities align.

Thank you again for your interest and your willingness to share your perspective on the importance of trade and economic alignment. We encourage you to engage in discussions, ask questions, and share experiences you think may be of interest.

Once again, a warmest welcome. We look forward to spending the week together and working with each of you long after the delegation concludes!

Sincerely,

Melissa Wooten
Head of Politics,
Press, and Public
Affairs, British

TO SUPPORT

Whitewall welcomes you to London!

Whether you're a first-time visitor or a regular traveller, London will always surprise you.

Phil frequently hops the pond from his day job running our West Coast US office, while Matthew takes care of business in London.

Both of us are passionate about creating amazing experiences – and London offers a playground like no other. You can often find us out on the town enjoying restaurants, the theater and other cultural attractions, as well as soaking up the rich history of this incredible city.

Enjoy your time in the UK – and look out for our WW logo on the places and activities you really won't want to miss!
